Hospital Officials' Citation Asked

Duncan Ragsdale, a co-guardian with Mark Lane of Grace E. Walden, has asked Probate Court to cite officials of Western Mental Health Institute at Bolivar, Tenn., for contempt because they haven't produced all her medical records as ordered.

Lane has accused Tennessee officials of sending Mrs. Walden to the mental hospital in 1968 because she saw a person other than James Earl Ray in the boarding house from which Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. was shot. Lane is now Ray's lawyer.

In the petition, Ragsdale stated officials from the mental institution have failed to produce social case histories for Mrs. Walden from 1969 through 1974. The file given to them as guardians also didn't include miscellaneous progress records for the years 1968 to 1973, the petition stated.

Judge Joseph W. Evans scheduled a hearing on the petition at 9 a.m. Dec. 18
